

The Hirer and the Visiting Company are reminded to include the following text in all programmes issued for any performance. Failure to do so may incur costs related to the Theatre producing the information for inclusion. An electronic copy can be e-mailed on request or can be found on the production office computers. Where possible, please include the Theatre logo.

Important: Programmes that do not include the following text, or which have not been checked by a member of the Theatre management prior to printing, will NOT be allowed to be sold, regardless of costs incurred by the Hirer or the Visiting Company.
