

ADC Theatre Student Bursary Scheme

A major purpose of the ADC Theatre in Cambridge is to create affordable opportunities for students to participate in and to enjoy all forms of theatrical activity.

The Executive Committee of the ADC Theatre has therefore introduced a bursary scheme to allow students from the University of Cambridge in receipt of either a University or a College bursary to apply for a discount on tickets for student shows at the Theatre or at the Corpus Playroom.

Bursary Details

The bursary discount will automatically offer 25% off the student ticket price for a booking that meets the following conditions:

- The bursary discount will only be available for one ticket per event per eligible customer. There will be no limit to the maximum number of tickets per event overall that can be discounted under the bursary scheme;
- The ticket must be used by the named ticketholder;
- The discount is only available for Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday (matinee or evening) performances of student productions at the ADC Theatre or Corpus Playroom;
- The discount will not be available for any events listed on ADC Ticketing;
- The discount cannot be used in conjunction with any other discounts or offers;
- Tickets must be purchased at least one hour prior to the performance.

The bursary discount will be valid until the end of the academic year (September to August) in which the form was signed. This discount can be subsequently renewed following return of a new form to the ADC Box Office.

The discount will apply automatically to any eligible ticket purchases made on your Box Office account. You must be logged in for the offer to apply at the checkout.

The ADC Theatre reserves the right to change the terms of the bursary discount. Any bookings are subject to the Theatre's standard terms and conditions. For information on how the Theatre handles your data, please read our privacy policy.
